
Being a yoga instructor has its advantages. For example, you sometimes find yourself teaching a private lesson to a beautiful client. Such is the case with Emily here. You've given her some basic stretches as a warm up, but perhaps you can come up with a couple of ways to make this session more…interesting.

Begin a guided meditation session to relax and hypnotize Emily

Show Emily the proper way to pose, so that you can use a pressure point that freezes her in place.

Emily squats to the ground in a way that allows you to look right up her skirt. “Of course Master. You can see any part of me that you wish.”

Seems Emily was involved in a strong Dom/Sub relationship back in high school where she eagerly took on the sub role. What’s more, in her brain’s attempt to rationalize its memories with the current situation, she believe you are her former partner.

Emily remains in that position for a few moments. Maybe she is waiting for you to try another letter.

E

You instruct Emily to begin meditation. As you describe lush landscapes and other calming imagery, you notice her body becoming noticeably more relaxed. When you feel that she has sunk deep enough, you begin to change your language to become more commanding. You tell Emily to abandon all of her thoughts and follow only your voice.

Finally you believe she is deep enough to accept your suggestions without question. What will you have her do?

Have Emily remove her top and walk around like a mindless zombie.

Have Emily give you her home address and suggest that she is unable to resist being hypnotized by you later.

You finish your suggestion and snap your fingers. Emily opens her eyes and reaches for her phone. She dials a familiar number and waits for a response.

“Hey Sean…Yeah I don’t think it’s working between us…Yeah I know how long it’s been…Well I don’t care if it seems out of the blue…Sean it’s over ok. Don’t talk to me ever again.” Emily hangs up the phone and looks at you. “Sorry you had to hear that.”

You aren’t sorry. Time to take this a bit further.

Command Emily to remove her clothes.

Emily responds immediately to your suggestion. Unaware of her naked state, she resumes the lesson as if nothing has changed. You are sure to take advantage of the situation by choosing very specific poses. No reason to stop with yoga though:

Wake Emily from this trance (Don't worry you've put in some triggers)

Have Emily become your girlfriend and pose for you.

Put Emily into a deep sleep

You instruct Emily to forget that she was ever hypnotized during this session. You tell her to remember this as one of her favorite ever yoga sessions and tell her to book another session with you for next week. Finally, you Tell Emily that she will always be submissive with you and follow your suggestions.

“Yes Master” Emily replies.

Return to the start.

It's been about a week since your session with Emily. You implanted and reinforced several suggestions for obedience, but you can't help but fear they may not have stuck. Either way you have just arrived at Emily's house. She looks at you.

"Oh! What are you doing here?" She asks as you enter. Well, there are no signs that indicate she may be under your influence. Only one way to know for sure.

Instruct Emily to begin relaxing for you.

Emily follows your suggestion without any hesitation. She walks around, arms outstretched, with a blissful smile of ignorance on her face. This was only the warm up though. You have a couple other ideas for this session.

Wake Emily from this trance (Don't worry you've put in some triggers)

Have Emily finish stripping and continue doing yoga poses.

Tell Emily that she is your girlfriend so she feels comfortable stripping for you.

You dress Emily back into her street clothes and carry her outside. Once there, you pose her in a cute stance by the side of a public road. You even figure out how to get her to smile.

You take a seat on a nearby bench and watch. Emily attracts the gaze of many who pass her by. A couple even stop to look at her as if she were a statue. One man placed a dollar bill into her hoodie, clearly believing that she was some sort of street performer. When the novelty finally wears off, you decide to try a couple other poses with Emily.

Pose Emily to flash a bit while sitting on a wall.

Pose Emily to moon on a stairway.

Emily nods her head mindlessly as you suggest she try a pose that she formally rejected during your session. You instruct Emily to freeze in that position and she obeys, her body solid as a statue. You pass your hand along her soft skin and firm muscles, sure to inspect every inch of her pose. After all, you need to make sure she is doing it properly.

When you finish you instruct Emily to relax. Time to go a step further.

Command Emily to remove her clothes.

"Yes Master" Emily coos. She removes her top and turns around. She seductively strips off her panties and throws them your way. Finally, she slowly pulls up on her skirt until you can see her ass in front of you.

You marvel at the luck you had in teaching a class with this woman. The odds of finding someone with a past like hers are surely miniscule.

You aren't one to look a gift horse in the mouth though. Time to give the next and final letter.

Emily blinks her eyes and looks around, confused for a moment. Then she becomes aware of her state of dress.

"What the hell?!" She shouts. "What did you do to me?" Emily quickly begins putting clothing back on.

You try to calm her by feeding her some bullshit about being more comfortable but she is not having any of it.

"You think it is ok to treat your clients this way? I'm going to have your license removed immediately!"

Well you can't have that happen. Better use one of those triggers:

Trigger Emily to immediately strip naked and do some yoga poses.

Trigger Emily to become your girlfriend and strip for you.

Trigger Emily to strip and then go into a deep sleep.

Emily sexily removes her clothing for you and smiles seductively in your direction. “What would you like me to do with my phone?” If you’re being honest her phone was one of the farthest things from your mind. But then again you could have some use for it. What do you do next?

Program Emily to obey all of your text messages, even while not in trance.

Instruct Emily to set the phone aside and have sex with you.

You snap your fingers and shut Emily's mind off. In this submissive state you have her stare at her phone's screen. You send a series of commands and suggestions to her via text message and are sure to repeat the instruction to her verbally. Finally you ask her to repeat her programming.

"Yes Master I will immediately read any texts from you. I must obey any commands that you give me over text. I will not consciously know I am obeying your texts while I am awake."

End your session with Emily.

You bring Emily to a nearby hotel room and lay her onto the bed. Still frozen in her mental prison you spread her legs and prepare for an enjoyable evening. In the morning you know Emily will wake with no memory of what happened today. She will likely assume she had a fun night out and met a guy. She'll pay for the hotel room and be on with her day.

Return to the start.

You run through a set of instructions to increase Emily's sex drive and attraction towards you. When you finish, Emily looks like she is about to squirm out of her seat with horniness. Her attention is fully on you now, and not just in a hypnotic sense. She wants you. She needs you.

You free Emily to move as she likes and almost instantly she takes to her hands and knees. She displays herself towards you and says "I am ready for you."

After you both finish (quite awhile later), you send Emily back into a mindless trance.

End your session with Emily.

"Yes Master" Emily grins as she begins to sexily dance in front of you. She swings and sways her body to a silent rhythm as you watch amazed. Then she begins to pull and tug at her clothing until her chest becomes exposed.

You are envious of whoever Emily used to be in a relationship with. Whoever they were, they had great taste.

Emily continues her dance as you prepare to give the next and final letter.

F

You bring your statue over to a somewhat more secluded, but still public, location and strip her fully naked. You pull her arms in front of her pussy and spread the lips slightly. As you finish a woman walks by.

She scoffs at Emily. "What are you smiling at you fucking slut?" She shouts. Emily retains a vacant smile on her face and rigidity of her body. The woman, fuming, continues on her way.

Partially because you feel you have successfully contributed to the community today and partially because you fear the cops may come soon, you decide it's time to call it a day. Of course, you still need to collect your benefits of the day.

Bring Emily to a hotel for the night.

Emily blinks her eyes “Huh? Oh! Thanks for the house call session! I am so glad you were able to come over.” She begins to put back on her clothing, but she doesn’t mention or even seem to notice the activity.

“I really hope we can have another session again soon. I love listening to you and feeling this amazing afterwards.” You are certain that there will be more session later. You bid her goodbye.

“Oh! One more thing!” Emily runs over to you and wraps her arms around you in a passionate kiss. “Thanks again!”

Return to the start

A couple of light presses to the back of the neck and you find that you were successful in shutting down the motor response function of Emily's brain. Emily now stands frozen, and what's more, her awareness of her body has vanished too. She's still awake in her mind, but essentially disconnected from reality.

Use Emily as a living statue in public locations.

Reconnect Emily's brain to her body…But only certain parts.

You massage another point on Emily's neck, lower this time, to stimulate the return of her consciousness. But you decide to stop slightly short of fully returning her mind. You step back and Emily looks at you.

"Oh hey! I gotta get ready for practice. You wanna come with me?" She asks. You aren't sure what practice she is referring to, but your curiosity causes you to follow Emily back to her house.

Once there, Emily changes into a cheerleader's outfit. You realize Emily believes she is back in High School. You returned all of her memories up to her senior year.

"Well? A, B, or C?" She asks. You have no idea what these letters mean, but you pick anyway.

C

Emily lays her naked body onto her yoga mat, closes her eyes, and drifts into a deep sleep. She will take any suggestions that you give her in this state. You take a moment to admire the incredible malleable mind that you now have at your disposal.

Wake Emily from this trance (Don't worry you've put in some triggers)

Have Emily do some naked yoga poses

Implant in Emily's mind that she is your girlfriend and will pose naked for you.

Give Emily some final instructions and end your session.

You set Emily on top of a nearby wall and unzip her jacket a bit further. From a front vantage point, anyone could now see her exposed breast. You smile as a jogger stops dead in his tracks in front of Emily. Seems this is the perfect spot for a water break. To his credit, the man does his best not to stare, but his gaze keeps shifting back in one direction.

As the jogger continues away you wonder what Emily would think if she was aware of her body or surroundings right now. Then you decide to try something else.

Pose Emily naked and displaying full frontal.

Pose Emily naked and displaying her ass.

Emily looks at you confused. But ultimately she says “Yeah…ok I guess.” She takes a meditative pose and listens as you progressively relax her body and mind, just as you had done during your session. Finally, Emily relaxes to the point that you believe she will accept your suggestions. What will you suggest?

Have Emily call her boyfriend and break up with him.

Have Emily perform a difficult yoga pose for you.

"Oh Yes Master" Emily chimes right on cue. She lays back on the couch and begins to play with herself. "I will do anything for my Master" Emily moans as she pleasures herself. You watch as she grows her pleasure more and more until at last she climaxes. You are certain you are up next. Maybe you will just leave the rest of her mind sleeping silently in her head for a few weeks.

Return to the start.

Emily kneels to the ground in front of you “Yes Master I live to serve you”

Seems Emily was involved in a strong Dom/Sub relationship back in high school where she eagerly took on the sub role. What’s more, in her brain’s attempt to rationalize its memories with the current situation, she believe you are her former partner.

Emily bows at your feet and continues to repeat her mantra. You wonder if there are some other options available.

D

You pull down Emily's pants and move her arms to spread her cheeks on the stairs. She attracts a few whistles and hollers from a nearby group of men. For a moment you believe they are going to try to move her or otherwise harm her, but after a few more hollers they continue on their way.

You decide it's time to up the ante one more time.

Pose Emily naked and displaying full frontal.

Pose Emily naked and displaying her ass.

You pick A and Emily smiles. “Yes Master I will cheer. I belong to you all year!”

Seems Emily was involved in a strong Dom/Sub relationship back in high school where she eagerly took on the sub role. What’s more, in her brain’s attempt to rationalize its memories with the current situation, she believe you are her former partner.

“Master knows just what to do, My body belongs to you!”

Hmm you wonder what happens if you pick:

A smile forms on Emily's face as she realizes she is madly in love with you.

"As the perfect girlfriend, I should pose naked for you." She repeats the thought that you implanted into her head. Then she begins to do just that. You watch amazed as Emily shows off her body, sexily sliding along a nearby support beam.

You'd love to keep her this way, but someone would eventually notice. That doesn't mean the session needs to be over though.

Trigger Emily to do some naked yoga poses.

Wake Emily from her trance (don't worry you've put in some triggers).

Trigger Emily to go into a deep sleep.

You bring your statue over to a somewhat more secluded, but still public, location and strip her fully naked. You smack one of Emily's own hands onto her ass and leave her in this pose.

A good Samaritan sees what is happening and approaches you. "What's going on? Are you ok miss?" She asks. You explain that Emily is a model posing for a shoot. She simply can't answer since she is trying not to break character.

The woman looks disbelieving and you'd rather she not ask further questions. You place a hand on her shoulder and apply some strategic pressure. You explain that everything is fine. She simply missed the nearby signs warning of a photo shoot.

"Everything is fine…I just missed some signs." The woman nods. Then she turns and walks away. You smile. Time for some personal time with Emily.

Bring Emily to a hotel for the night.
